Just Returned from Very Blessed Fall Team Trip!

In our annual cycle of ministry, after a very productive June planning trip to the field and successful Summer Camp this year with 571 campers sent, we moved on to our annual Fall Team Trip. This year Janice and I were privileged to host a 10-person team from Red Lion Bible Church on their first trip to Haiti. In fact, for a church that supports over 200 missionaries, this was the first time that any group went out from their local church in PA, and so it was quite a significant event for the entire ministry!

We are very happy to report that in answer to many prayers, God truly blessed this trip in every way, in spite of a number of obstacles for the group. Anyone who understands mission endeavors in the developing world, knows that what you set out to accomplish in a given time period, be it a day, week, month, or year, is not typically what gets done. Well, the Lord not only helped us to get those things finished that we had planned to do, but also saw to it that we had also hoped for, got done as well!

At Pastor Leon's: joying worshipping people on Sunday, we of last year's project we started by mak-ments on that Building. We reinforced trusses and constructed 23 benches for the children to use during Sunday Children's Church, mid-week Awana and other services.

At Pastor Faude's: The church in Danache finds itself right in the middle of a region heavily influenced by voodoo. In fact, to get to Pastor Faude's church, our team had to pass through a voodoo church's annual feast, bizarre and fundraiser—Hard to describe! So, we were very happy to encourage this young pastor and his people by first spending a day painting the church, small attached mer pastor's wid- "Tres Content!"

The next and team, we re- through the vil- out both Creole and French John those who could same time, we all in the area to lastic service at the church. Pastor Faude said that while other missionaries had visited his church in the past, this was the first group that actually walked out through the surrounding village, and the people really seemed to appreciate that. Jim Hollingshead brought the challenge, while several team members shared personal salvation testimonies. Please continue to pray for these two pastors, their church ministries, and that our labor among them indeed continues to bear fruit for eternity to the Glory of God!
